

MORNING APPEAL.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5

THE HUMBOLDT AND LANDER BOUNDARY.

In 1887 the Legislature passed an act requiring the Surveyor-General to cause to be made an accurate survey of the railroads in this State which extend from one boundary line of the State to the other and determine the number of miles of main track and side track in each of the counties of this State and place monuments at all points where such railroad crosses any county line and mark on the sides of such monuments facing the respective counties the name of the county and the number of miles of railroad in such county, and the number of miles of main track and side track thus ascertained to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and a copy of the same to be filed with the Recorder of each of the counties through which said road extends. The sum of $2,500 was appropriated out of the General Fund of the State to defray the expenses of the survey.

As only one road—the Central Pacific—extends from one boundary line to the other the act applies to that road. The track department of the Central Pacific knew to the foot the number of miles of road belonging to the company in Nevada and as it was paying taxes on or about four miles more of its road than lay within the State of Nevada it did not of course object to the Legislature appropriating $2,500 to establish the act.

The survey established the boundary line between Humboldt and Lander over two miles west of the boundary and not only deprived Humboldt of over two miles of railroad, but of a strip of territory north from the railroad to the E. K. line. Humboldt brought suit to recover the strip. Lander demurred to the complaint and the trial court overruled the demurrer. Lander appealed to the Supreme Court and that tribunal has sustained the demurrer and the case will now have to be tried if Humboldt desires to re-establish the old boundary line.

By the survey the State of Nevada lost about four miles of railroad which was assessed at about $45,000 a year and it paid $2,500 for the privilege of releasing the Central Pacific Company from the payment of taxes on that amount. It is hardly necessary to say that the Silver party was not in the ascendancy in the Legislature or State Government when the act was passed.—Reno Journal.

A Remarkable Case.

The Silver State says Dr. Hanson and Hagar held an autopsy on the body of the Italian Santini, who was stabbed on Christmas, and found that the knife had penetrated the pericardium (the sack enveloping the heart) and entered the left auricle of the heart. Death resulted from hemorrhage. This is one of the few cases on record where a man has lived nearly a week with a knife wound in his heart. Coroner Graman held an inquest on Santini's body yesterday and the jury found that he came to his death from a knife wound inflicted by Menesucci Candido.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

W. J. Westfield, State Treasurer elect, has presented the State University library with a handsome collection of eighty-eight volumes of standard literature. Along with the collection, came several large framed photographs of the members of the State Legislature taken during the different sessions, when Mr. Westfield was a Senator from Lyon county.

A man in Missouri while hugging his wife showed his feelings to run away with his judgement and broke three of his ribs. In spite of this a girl will jump at an offer from a Missouri man just as if they were the tenderest creatures in the world.

It has taken just eighteen years to settle up the Lock estate. The Trustees have been abused all this time as thieves by the press, but they have stuck like leeches and extracted every drop of blood from the property that they could.

A laughable incident is reported from Lincoln county. A well-known Democrat was recently talking from a porch the morning after the election when he had been a guest of political consolation. He was met by Gov. Panjate who was then excitedly exclaimed: "I don't know where my dog has gone!" "Your dog?" said the inquisitive Democrat, "I suppose he's gone to the West! Everything else has gone to the West!"

The above is adapted from the French.

The Wells Fargo Express Company claims to have lost $45,000 in train robbery, and expended $650,000 in bringing an attempt to bring the robbers to justice. No one, however, sympathizes with the loss sustained by this over-extended company. It has robbed the people of the West of ten times that amount.

The APPEAL reports that one of the A. C. Cleveland is seriously ill at his ranch in White Pine. He made a long, hard campaign and went home suffering from overwork. Thousands of his friends from all over the State irrespective of party hope earnestly for his recovery.

Mrs. Youngwoldin, "33 years old, so good to her workmen." Mrs. Beuther—"How do you know?" "Why, he was talking in his sleep last night and he said, 'Jim, I love you ten!' And in these hard times, too!"

Alice Edith Blythe has been declared by the Court neither to have been the wife nor the widow of Ed. Tom Blythe.
